

COVID CONSUMER RESOURCES

Locating your nearest food pantry/ food resources:

- Contact the Second Harvest Food Bank in Erie to locate your nearest pantry or address additional emergency food needs: (814) 459-3663 or nwpafoodbank.org/need-help/agency-locator.com
- Second Harvest can also screen you by phone for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and any other food-related resources you qualify for
- Use this site: pawic.com to determine if you qualify for WIC (supplemental nutrition program for women, infants, and children), and apply for the program on the website
- 211 is a telephone number, chat, text, and web resource for finding health and human services—for everyday needs and in crisis situations
- Simple, inexpensive recipes: spendsmart.extension.iastate.edu

Finding stores that take SNAP/WIC:

SNAP: a program which gives people purchasing power for buying food. If you need assistance purchasing the food you or your family needs, you can apply for benefits online at this link: dhs.pa.gov/Services/Assistance/Pages/SNAP.aspx

WIC: a program providing supplemental purchasing power to women, infants, and children. See if you qualify and apply for benefits: pawic.com

- For additional information about SNAP, as well as Emergency Shelter needs and Medicaid, contact the Erie County Assistance Office at (814) 461-2000
- Find stores accepting SNAP and WIC in your area:
 - Accepting SNAP: usda-fns.maps.arcgis.com/apps/webappviewer/index.html?id=e1f3028b217344d78b324193b10375e4
 - Accepting WIC: wicstorelocator.com/st/pennsylvania
- Find an Erie Metropolitan Transit Authority (EMTA) bus to your nearest SNAP/WIC-accepting store:
 - EMTA phone number (814) 452-3515 and website ride-the-e.com
- Being safe in grocery stores: fda.gov/food/food-safety-during-emergencies/shopping-food-during-covid-19-pandemic-information-consumers
